

Final Exam

1. The Versailles-Washington Treaty ending World War I. * The formation, main organs and functions of the UN. * The main objectives of international diplomatic protocol.
2. Post-World War II settlement and the Cold War (formation of the two blocks) with the first period of relief (1945–1956). * The trends, current processes and relations of international trade after World War II. * Introduce an important international diplomatic event from the recent past by referring to presence in media.
3. The relationship between the countries of the Eastern and the Western Bloc, the “Little Cold War” the crisis of the Soviet system and the collapse of the bipolar world (1957–1991). * The role of universal international monetary organizations (IMF, World Bank, WTO) in handling financial crises. * Types of conflicts, conflict management strategies.
4. The Indian Independence Movement, Economic and Political Issues of Modern India. * BRIC and G20, changes in centrum-periphery structures. * Consular functions, diplomatic responsibilities of consular officers.
5. The history, generations and main missions of international peacekeeping. * Crisis communication. * Diplomatic and consular relations. Representing a third state.
6. The authority and role of UN Security Council in the establishment of international peace and security. * Western Europe in the 1950s and 1960s. The Vienna Convention. * Types of negotiations and negotiators, negotiation strategies.
7. The formation, role and functions of NATO. * The postmodern information-based society. * The main privileges and exemptions of diplomatic agents.
8. The foundation and the role of the EU, EU-membership, EU-enlargement. * Political ideologies (liberalism, conservatism, socialism, nationalism). * The formation of EU’s economic relations with non-EU states in the 21st century.
9. Helsinki process, the introduction of the CSCE/OSCE (Conference for Security and Cooperation in Europe/Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe). * The most relevant models of communication and culture. * Inequality, poverty and deprivation.
10. The introduction of one regional organisation outside Europe. * The problem of sustainable development and the future of world economy. * Groups, prejudices, stereotypes, ethnocentrism.
11. The Arab world since the Arab Spring, main conflicts. * The influencing techniques of modern era (mass communication, propaganda, manipulation). * The rules of official gift giving and cultural differences.

12. The Iran-Iraq war, the Sunni and Shiite Islam, the Iranian Islam statehood. * The milestones of the history of diplomacy. * The functions and types of non-verbal communication.
13. The background and current situation of the Arab-Israeli conflicts. * The two main directions of research of intercultural communication: dimension-based and culture standard research. * The relation of decency, etiquette and protocol in practice.
14. China in the era of World Wars, the birth of modern China. * Current conflicts in Asia. * The institutional system of cultural diplomacy.
15. Colonisation of Africa, independence movements in Africa. * Current conflicts in Africa. * Protection of human rights on international level.
16. Position of the United States of America in the international system from the World War I until present days. * Ethics of communication. * Current or recent events in international sport diplomacy.
17. Markets and actors of world economy, world economy centres in the 21th century, the role of the WTO. * Criteria of becoming a diplomat and their responsibilities * Online-media, fake news.
18. Trends on international labour force market, cooperation on international labour force market (ILO). * Current reformation processes of the European Union. * Characteristics of persuasive speech.
19. Opportunities of 'small' countries in the age of globalisation – opportunities of regional integration and (world) economy. * European Union policies. * Introduction of the own culture in dimension based models.
20. Effects of differences in economic development of various countries on world economy and society. * Diplomatic mission, the head of the diplomatic mission and rules of ranking. * Protocol of formal, official events.